THE JUDGES FOR THE 2017 CAMDEN ART PRIZE

JANET KLEPATZKI

Janet Klepatzki began painting at the age of 16, firstly with oils and then watercolours. She is a teacher, author, artist and mother. She became a self-taught artist studying with European artists overseas. Janet lives in Camden NSW running a busy studio teaching all the new techniques to her students who travel far and wide to learn. Having taught and lectured internationally in USA, Canada and Great Britain, with this wealth of knowledge, Janet still finds there is always something to learn.

"When we stop learning we miss what is new and exciting happening around us".

PETER STOREY

Peter Storey has been an artist and designer for 60 years and excels in fine finished timber sculpture and craft works for indoors. He paints with various materials but most passionately with acrylic including ink being greatly influenced by many visits to Central Australia. He has a passion for recycled Australian native timbers. Having experimented with various finishing materials he now uses Kunos oil exclusively to achieve a soft lustre. Peter experiments with 2 and 3 dimensional forms to produce combinations not normally considered. He has lived in the Bermagui area for 35 years and is a hub member of the Shop7 Artspace gallery at Fishermens Wharf, Bermagui

LEN BROWN - Photography

Len Brown joined the Blue Mountains Photography Group in 1974 and has been a Life Member of Sydney International Exhibition of Photography since 1981. Len has been President since 1993 instigating the Sydney Harbour International in 2012. He has judged competitions at many photography groups over the years. Len has gained many awards, including: 1988 SSAPS from the Australian Photographic Society; 2009 FCC ESA-Exceptional Service from the Federation of Camera Clubs (NSW); 2016 Honorary PESGSPC from the Pascal English School and Greek School Photographic Club; 2016 Honorary Fellow from the Image Colleague Society, International USA; 2016 Honorary EMFPA from the Federation Multicultural Photographic Art, USA

Exhibition doors open 7.30 pm - Attendance on Opening Night is free to everyone.
